

Ready to build your digital skills?

No matter our age or digital skill level, we can all use a bit of extra help to stay tech savvy.

Boost your digital skills and confidence online with Be Connected's free resources for older Australians, including:

- online presentations covering a range of topics every month
- step-by-step instructional videos on things like online safety essentials
- self-paced courses, articles, tips and more.

